Truman Predicts Victory; Chicago Roars Welcome

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO

Aboard Truman Campaign Train, Oct. 26. (AP)—President Truman claimed that "the tide is rolling" for the Democrats as he turned today from a roaring Chicago welcome to renew his election drive in Indiana and Ohio.

Spurred by the cheers of hundreds of thousands in the Illinois city, Mr. Truman declared that on election day "some of the reddest faced people the country has ever seen will be the pollsters."

And in Cleveland's public hall, at 9 o'clock (EST) tonight, associates said the president will give the poll takers an even more thorough going-over for their predictions of heavy majorities for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP nominee.

Service Commission Placed In Dilemma

Attorney General Takes Away Its Attorneys

Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—Attorney General Eugene F. Black hung the State Public Service Commission today on both horns of a dilemma.

First, he withdrew its attorneys. Second, he started suit in the state supreme court to upset the commission's order granting the Michigan Bell Telephone company an $8,200,000 rate increase.

Third, the commission said it had no money to hire an outside attorney and asked Black what it should do to present its case to the supreme court.

Fourth, Black replied today "hire yourself an attorney."

The commission appeared to get little satisfaction from that answer.

(Black previously has refused legal advice to the secretary of state, auditor general, state treasurer, municipal finance commission and the governor's office.

One of these, Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., sent his own brief up to the state supreme court and beat Black.)

Black's fight with the commission started when he demanded it withdraw the rate increase until the courts had decided a suit over a 1945 commission order to cut Michigan Bell rates $3,500,000 a year. He has intervened in the city of Detroit's suit to upset the rate increase, leaving the commission with no legal representation.

Enrollment 16,034 At Michigan State

East Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—Total attendance at Michigan State college has topped the 16,000 mark for the first time in history, college officials reported today.

At the completion of short course registration yesterday, 148 new students had registered, including 139 men and nine women. Of these, 33 men and two women were veterans.

This added to the regular student enrollment of 15,886 pushes the total enrollment to 16,034. The comparable figure for last year was 15,208.

Jacob Arvey, chairman of the Cook county Democratic central committee, and former Mayor Edward J. Kelly arranged an ovation for the president in Chicago last night such as he has not seen in all his cross-country stumping campaign which started in Michigan on Labor Day.

Bill Horstman, manager of the Chicago Stadium, estimated that 24,000 persons were jammed into the big West side arena, and another 200,000 stood around outside to hear Mr. Truman as he declared democracy at home is threatened by forces similar to those that backed Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo.

The president said that "powerful reactionary forces" working "through the Republican party," are "silently undermining our Democratic institutions."

Ray J. Crane, chief of the Chicago uniformed police, estimated that 750,000 persons greeted Mr. Truman as he paraded from the Blackstone Hotel through streets loaded with holders of Truman signs and alight with fireworks.

Later, grinning happily at the applauding throng in the stadium, the grey-haired chief executive said he had gotten the "facts" of the campaign before the people by a strenuous personal campaign.

"I've seen and talked to more than six million people in the United States and they know the facts now," he said.

"They are determined to sweep back the forces that threaten democracy in this country."

"We are sweeping toward victory."

"Everywhere I go, I hear news and see faces that make me know the tide is rolling for."

"In the next few days, it is going to roll even higher."

Parolee Questioned In Eau Claire Orgy

Teen Age Boy and Girl Slain By Sex Madman

Eau Claire, Wis., Oct. 26 (AP)—Law enforcement officials planned further questioning today of a young reformatory parolee as they continued an investigation of the sex slaying of a teen age boy and girl.

The 21 year old parolee was taken into custody yesterday when he fled after seeing a police car. After he was questioned last night, authorities declined any comment.

Raymond Smith, 18-year old bank clerk, was shot to death in a remote corner of a country club golf course Saturday, and his companion, Gertrude Bauman, 17, a high school senior, was raped and murdered.

A posse formed when they failed to return from a Saturday afternoon hike, discovered the bodies Sunday evening. Smith's nude body lay in two feet of water in the Eau Claire river. He had been shot four times.

The partly nude body of Miss Bauman bearing three 22 calibre bullet wounds, was found on the river bank some 175 feet away. Sheriff Lloyd Thompson said no weapon has been found, but a search of the river bottom yielded Smith's hat, the girl's shoes and a camera the couple had carried on the hike.

Warm Sun Remains For Indian Summer

Chicago, Oct. 26 (AP)—More Indian summer weather appeared in prospect for most of the nation today.

Temperatures in the 70's were forecast for some sections of the Midwest and Southwest, duplicating yesterday's marks over parts of the Midwest.

WORKS FOR REDS—Dr. Kurt Fisher, chief of the Interior Department in Germany's Soviet Zone, heads the drive to organize a huge Russian-trained "police force" in Eastern Germany.

The force, estimated at up to 400,000 Germans, many of them recently prisoners of war, is seen as a "Trojan horse" army that would maintain Moscow's domination in the event Big Four occupation troops are withdrawn.

Yingkow May Prove Dunkirk For China

Government To Abandon Manchurian Corridor

BY SPENCER MOOSA

Peiping, Oct. 26 (AP)—Chinese in uneasy Peiping are talking about a possible new Dunkirk—a Dunkirk of Manchuria.

The port of escape may be newly-recaptured Yingkow, on the western neck of the Liaotung peninsula. It is 100 miles southwest of Mukden and across the Gulf of Chihli from Hulatan, also held by the government.

For the first time since early last spring, the government has a clear route from Mukden to Yingkow, and this has heightened talk of getting out of the sliver of Manchuria not yet taken by the Chinese Communists.

There may be an answer by Chiang when he returns from Mukden. In the meantime, Peiping feels increasing uneasiness from the Red threat. Pessimists give the ancient, one-time capital two months; optimists grant anywhere from three months to a year.

Loser of $86,000 In Blackjack Found Dead Out In Desert

Reno, Oct. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Gyn Conger Steinbeck, estranged wife of novelist John Steinbeck, will be summoned to stand trial Thursday in the death of Leonard H. Wolff, 28, authorities said today.

The body of Wolff, World War II flier and son of a wealthy Denver family, was found on the desert near here early Saturday with a bullet wound in the head. District Attorney Harold O. Taber said Wolff had lost approximately $86,000 at blackjack a few hours earlier.

Taber said Mrs. Steinbeck may have been the last person to see him alive.

Coroner Laurence Layman termed Wolff's death wound self-inflicted but said the father, Jacob Wolff of Denver, refused to accept the conclusion.

Grand Rapids Bus Driver Accused Of Strangling Woman

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—Clyde Corbin, 32-year-old Grand Rapids bus driver, faced arraignment today in the strangling of a divorcee whose nude body was found in his hotel room Friday.

Assistant Prosecutor Roger O. McMahon said Corbin told him he had smothered the woman, Mrs. Vera Byrnes, 35, of Grand Rapids, with a pillow after she repulsed his advances.

Her body was found Friday night by probation officers who went to Corbin's room to serve him with papers for non-payment of alimony. McMahon said Corbin was divorced by his wife in 1944.

Dense Fog Blanket Settles Over Ohio

Columbus, O., Oct. 26 (AP)—Fog smothered Ohio today, contributing to a traffic accident in which twelve persons were injured, five seriously. They were hurt when an American bus lines machine left the road to avoid an oncoming truck near Zanesville on U. S. Route 40.

The fog blanket extended over Ohio, as far west as the Illinois-Indiana line, somewhat below the Ohio River, as far east as Pittsburgh and north to Ottawa, Canada.

Powers Map Next Move In Deadlock

Hope Not Given Up To Settle With Russia

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

Paris, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Western Powers planned to meet today to map their next move in the United Nations Security Council on the Berlin crisis.

The deadlock on the Berlin case became more pronounced last night when Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky vetoed a plan for settling the dispute submitted by the six "neutral" members of the council.

Despite the veto, well informed quarters predicted negotiations to settle the dispute within the council would continue among the United States, Britain, France and the neutral members.

Sources close to Juan A. Bramuglia, acting president of the council, said the Argentine felt the Western and Soviet viewpoints on Berlin still might be reconciled after further conversations.

Bramuglia was pictured as basing his belief upon the fact that Vishinsky said last night the Russians were willing to raise the Berlin blockade if adequate control of Berlin's currency were established at the same time.

Vishinsky vetoed a council resolution calling upon the Russians to lift the blockade simultaneously with the beginning of four power talks aimed at making the Soviet currency the sole money for all of Berlin.

ROW OVER PALESTINE

Paris, Oct. 26 (AP)—The American president of the United Nations security council angrily denounced debate on Palestine today.

He closed the session with a statement that the council could not be lashed into action by Arab charges of bias.

Balky Los Angeles Witnesses Get Jail

Ten Refuse To Answer Quiz On Communists

Los Angeles, Oct. 26 (AP)—Ten witnesses—four of them women—were ordered to jail last night for alleged contempt of federal court after they refused to answer questions about Communists.

U. S. Judge Peirson M. Hall, finding them in contempt, remanded them to the custody of the U. S. marshal without bail.

They had been brought before the federal judge after refusing to answer questions put to them by a grand jury opening an investigation into asserted Communist activities among government employees in southern California.

Eight were jailed immediately. They are Wesley Bissey, Ben Dobbs, Henry Steinberg, Phillip Bok, Frank Edward Alexander, Samuel Harry Kasinowitz, Delphine Murphy Smith and Mrs. Margaret I. Noble.

Two other women, Mrs. Miriam Brooks Sherman and Mrs. Dorothy Baskin Forest, were given until noon tomorrow to arrange for care of their small children before going to jail.

The questions they refused to answer included:

"Do you know the names of the officers of the Los Angeles Communist party?"

"Do you know the 'table of organization' of the party?"

Fisher Body Sets Up Plants Nearer To Steel Sources

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—General Motors is setting up two new Fisher body plants in the area of steel-producing Pittsburgh.

GM, disclosing its plans today, said the selection of the Pittsburgh area would be for "mutual advantage" of the corporation and steel producers.

A former war plant at Ambridge, Pa., is being leased from the Navy. The second plant will be constructed south of Pittsburgh.

The Ambridge plant will be for the cutting of sheet and coiled steel to approximate size for stamping. The second plant will be the stamping unit and will fabricate body parts for shipment to Fisher assembly units through the country.

Education Report Says Rural Youths Are Short-Changed

Escanaba Only Complete Program In Peninsula

Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—The special citizen's committee on education was told yesterday that rural school children are being short-changed.

These are some of the quotations from reports to the committee studying new school legislation:

"Among 14-year olds, only 2.8 per cent of the city children are not attending school in contrast to 7.6 per cent of the farm children. Among 15-year olds, the percentages are 4.0 and 18.6, respectively, and in the next age level the percentages are 13.5 and 35.2, respectively. Of the 17-year-olds less than a third of the city children are not in school in contrast to nearly one-half of the farm children."

"This state of affairs tends to become a serious handicap to farm lads since a majority of them will sooner or later compete with city-reared persons for industrial or other urban occupations."

"In urban centers, 14.4 per cent of the 7-year olds are retarded as compared with 23.9 per cent of the farm children. For the 8-year olds, these percentages are 24.6 and 38.6, respectively, and for the 9-year olds the percentages are 29.4 and 42.9, respectively."

"Probably not more than three per cent of the teachers employed in districts without high schools hold bachelor degrees."

"Even in terms of minimum requirements, the quality of teaching service in the rural schools for 1947-48 was so inadequate that nearly 3,000 substandard (teaching) certificates had to be issued."

Escanaba Stands Alone

"In the southern peninsula, except for Traverse City, Bay County and Saginaw county, there is not a single program for handicapped children north of a line drawn east and west from Macomb, Oakland, Genesee, Shiawassee, Clinton, Ionia and Kent to Muskegon counties."

"Even south of that line, no

Paraguay Crushes One-Day Revolution

Asuncion, Paraguay, Oct. 26 (AP)—Paraguay's new government announced today it had suppressed a military revolt after 20 hours of bitter street fighting.

The regime of President Juan Natalicio Gonzalez said Col. Carlos Montanaro, brother of Foreign Minister Domingo Montanaro, led the uprising.

The revolt started at 1:40 a. m. Monday. Montanaro surrendered with the Paraguayan Military Academy cadets he led at 7:30 p. m. last night. His brother is attending the United Nations meeting in Paris.

A loyal cavalry regiment stationed at suburban Campo Grande supplied the politically-harassed Gonzalez government the power it needed to suppress the revolution.

Casualties were not disclosed. The interior ministry said "necessary measures" have been taken to restore normal life in Asuncion. There was no indication the revolt spread to any part of Paraguay outside the capital. The government said the whole country was calm.

Gonzalez was elected president earlier this year. He was the only

War Preparations Observed In Poland

Army Conscripts Youths; Dollar Value Zooms

Warsaw, Poland, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Polish government, standing fast with Russia in everything she does, says it is interested only in keeping the peace, but things are happening that resemble preparations for war.

Government officials discount or deny reports of unusual defense activity. Their standard reply is: "Poland is peacefully going ahead with rebuilding what the war destroyed."

Unofficially, war talk is widespread, but most Poles apparently believe the Western Allies will back down on the Berlin issue to keep the peace. The Polish Press editorially is warning that the strength of the Russian forces is causing the west to reflect. War fears, however, have boosted black market demands for the American dollar. Speculators are netting 1200 zlotys to the dollar. The official rate is 400.

Under the cloak of the organization called "in the service of Poland," hundreds of thousands of Polish youth are now learning—and soon their number will run into millions—how to shoot and kill. Sponsors of the movement say the youths' military training averages 16 hours monthly.

But it is not uncommon to see hundreds of youths marching through the streets of Warsaw long after midnight.

Circus Roulabout Death Is Mystery

Youth Fatally Stomped; No Evidence Found

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 26 (AP)—A coroner's inquest failed yesterday to uncover any evidence on which to file charges in the mysterious death of a 19-year-old circus roustabout.

A woman performer and 10 men employees of Daily Brothers circus were released after the coroner's jury returned an open verdict in the death of William Pettit, Louisville, Ky.

County prosecutors Wayne T. Walker and Clyde Combs said there was "absolutely no evidence on which to file charges."

Pettit's battered body was found in a circus wagon Saturday after the show arrived here from Lamar, Mo. Dr. Murray C. Stone, who performed an autopsy, said the youth had been "stomped to death" and apparently was the victim of a fight among the circus performers.

Three property gang laborers testified at the inquest they helped their boss, Oscar Lloyd Dennis, 19, load Pettit into the wagon and that they believed he was alive. They said they saw no evidence of wounds.

On the advice of his attorney, Dennis declined to testify.

Big City Vote Split For GOP

BY JACK BELL

En Route With Dewey to Chicago, Oct. 26 (AP)—An unofficial political popularity contest in four of the nation's biggest cities was underway today as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey trailed President Truman into Chicago.

At stake—from the Republican viewpoint—is the size of the margin by which the GOP nominee's followers expect him to win the presidency one week from today.

Confident that Dewey has enough rural and smaller city strength to put him over, these Republicans were intent on cutting down the usual Democratic majorities turned out by Chicago, Cleveland, Boston and New York City.

For that reason Cook county Republicans were reported determined to match or exceed the welcome given to Mr. Truman on his visit to Chicago yesterday.

Similarly, Republicans will try to out-do their Democratic rivals when Dewey follows the President to Cleveland tomorrow, into Boston Thursday and into New York City Saturday.

Mr. Truman, keeping one day ahead all the way, will close his campaign Saturday in Independence, Mo., his home town.

Dewey has announced that in Chicago tonight he will outline how he proposes to put into effect "friendly" policies toward labor, business and agriculture if he is elected. The speech will be broadcast (NBC) and televised (ABC) at 10 p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

His election is taken so much for granted in his camp that the Republican nominee is not expected to reply to the bristling attacks directed his way by the President.

Even in its final week, the GOP campaign apparently is moving with the throttle only half open.

Sales Tax Cheating Charged To Revenue Office In Detroit

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—Hinting at the possibility of a major scandal, the prosecutor's office today seized records of the Wayne county office of the state revenue department.

Assistant Prosecutor W. Ralph Delaney said his office was looking into reports that inefficiency and neglect have cost the state $44,000,000 a year, $8,000,000 of it in sales taxes alone.

A joint state-county investigation into sales tax cheating began a month ago. It was sparked by a charge by Attorney General Eugene F. Black that the Galperin chain of clothing stores in Detroit profited by $130,000 in settling a sales tax claim by the state.

Actor Richard Dix Has Heart Attacks

He had been resting at his ranch near Hollywood after two previous attacks.

His recent motion picture work has been confined to appearances in "The Whistler" mystery picture series.

Freighters Collide In St. Mary's River

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 26 (AP)—Two crew members were slightly injured today in a collision of two steamers in upper St. Mary's river, about six miles from here.

The steamer Leon Fraser of the Pittsburgh Steamship Co. with a cargo of iron ore collided with the steamer Algoso of the Algoma Steel Co., bound for the head of the lakes.

A survey of the steamer Fraser's damage is being made but it is not thought to be extensive. The injured seamen were aboard the Algoso which is expected to return here.

Shots Greet Soldiers At French Mine

Striker Slain, Policeman Wounded In Outbreak

Paris, Oct. 26 (AP)—One striker was killed and two policemen were wounded seriously today in southern France in a new outbreak of violence in the nationwide coal miners' strike.

The interior ministry said government forces passing a strikers' road block near Ales were met by a blast of gunfire and hand grenades. Several policemen were wounded, the ministry said. The striker and the two seriously wounded policemen were struck by gunfire.

The government force was preparing to clear strikers from four coal mines and a power plant near Ales, about 50 miles northwest of Marseille.

While the police and soldiers were operating between the villages of Rochelle and Saint Martin De Valgagues, workers in Ales surrounded the subprefecture, the Gendarmerie headquarters and the post office. Reserve forces drove them off, an official report to Paris added.

The death of the striker today brought the coal mine strike death toll to three. Two strikers were killed last week in a clash between troops and pickets in St. Etienne.

The attack near Ales shifted the strike spotlight from northern to southern France. Yesterday, 30,000 heavily armed troops and police occupied approximately half of the country's key northern coal fields and seized at least 12 struck mines.

Cohodas Warehouse Wrecked By Blast

Gas Blamed For $100,000 Marquette Explosion

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 26 (AP)—An explosion of terrific force in the basement of the building almost completely demolished a fruit and vegetable warehouse here last night.

Loss of the building, refrigeration units and contents was unofficially estimated at over $100,000. It is owned by Cohodas Brothers, Ishpeming, one of the nation's largest fruit and vegetable wholesalers.

Leaking ethylene gas, used in the ripening process of fruit, is believed to have caused the explosion, City Fire Chief R. W. Bystrom and State Fire Marshal Leonard Bartelli said. They were continuing their investigation today.

While the building, built in 1930 of tile and brick, is a complete loss, two trucks in the garage in the front part of the structure escaped almost undamaged.

The blast scattered broken glass over a wide area and police routed traffic off Washington street and US-41, on which the warehouse was located, for several hours.

Civic Theatre Casts For Christmas Play At Meeting Monday

Casting for a one-act play, "A Sign Unto You," by Jean Lee Latham, was completed at a meeting of Escanaba Civic Theatre held in the Escanaba recreation center last night. Mrs. Karl Gray will direct this production, which will be presented to various clubs and service groups in the city. In the cast are Janet Oberg, Mrs. Peter Molinare, Dr. Gardner Eversole, Robert Russell and Helen Masterson. The play concerns itself with a wealthy, materialistic New York family, entirely unaware of the hardships of life for some people. Stock markets and their health are the chief worries of this family, except for their only son who, much to the family's disgust, becomes a minister and is in charge of a parish in the lower east side of New York.

A very moving drama, "A Sign Unto You" portrays the "conversion" of this family. Other business accomplished at the meeting included appointment of Miss Eileen Torphy as chairman of the membership committee; amendment of the constitution to grant the board of directors authority to approve new memberships; discussion of direction for production of a three-act play during the winter.

St. Francis Hospital Starts Work Today On New Children's Ward

Work on a new children's ward at St. Francis hospital, long stressed as an urgent need, was begun today, it was announced by Sister Mary Cecilia, newly appointed Mother Superior of the hospital, maintained by Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis.

Twenty patients will be accommodated in the new section, to be built on the northeast side of the second floor. It is expected that the work will be completed within two weeks.

Glass brick will be used to partition the section from the hospital proper. Private and semi-private rooms and wards will be made in converting this section into a children's ward.

A playroom for children patients will be built in the sun parlor at the end of the second floor corridor. Much new equipment will be purchased and installed in the children's ward. There will be a special section for infants in the ward, and an observation room. The entire section will be sound proof.

Sister Mary Cecilia said yesterday that many improvements are planned in the hospital and these will be effected as soon as sufficient funds are available. Among these are a complete remodeling of the obstetrical department, with separate labor rooms; re-arrangement of the operating rooms, with addition of much new equipment, and building of an emergency receiving room and special diet kitchen.

No new additions are planned to the hospital because of the high cost of materials, and shortage of funds. However, to provide for the heavy load of patients during the winter months, the Sisters plan to install heating service in the sun parlors on each floor and to equip them as wards.

Raw Milk Plus Typhoid Carrier Spread Disease

Raw milk infected by a previously unknown typhoid fever carrier living on a dairy farm has been definitely established as the cause of a typhoid case reported in the Upper Peninsula Sept. 27, it is announced by the Northern Peninsula office of the Michigan Department of Health in Escanaba.

An investigation was begun immediately following the report of the typhoid fever case. The patient is now recovering.

The health department collected specimens from all persons known to have come in contact with the case during the month prior to the onset of the disease. Specimens were examined by the Michigan Department of Health laboratories at Powers and at Lansing.

"The case of typhoid fever was traced, without a doubt, to a previously unknown chronic typhoid carrier living on a dairy farm," the health department reported. "The family in which the case occurred consumed the infected milk raw which was obtained from a near-by cheese plant, before it was pasteurized."

Special laboratory tests identified the organisms recovered from both the case and the carrier as being the same strain of typhoid organism, thereby confirming the source of the case.

"It is unfortunate that this case of typhoid fever was acquired through the use of raw milk inasmuch as pasteurized milk was readily obtainable," the health department reported. "The man of the family had to lose three weeks from his job while specimens were being examined; his wife is still hospitalized, but is recovering. All of this unnecessary suffering, the expense of medical attention and the loss of wages could have been eliminated by the use of properly pasteurized milk."

The health department reported that between two and three per cent of the persons who contract typhoid fever become carriers of the disease for the rest of their lives. Practically all typhoid carriers harbor typhoid organisms in their gall bladders. The germs are expelled with the bile into the intestinal tract and discharged with the stools. Complete removal of the gall bladder is successful in eliminating the organisms and thus ending the carrier state in about 75 per cent of the chronic typhoid carriers. No typhoid fever patient is released from health department supervision until laboratory tests show him to be free of the organisms and that he is not a chronic carrier.

Known typhoid carriers are supervised throughout their lives to see they do not handle food, water or dairy products intended for public consumption. They are visited periodically by state or local health authorities and are required to notify the health authorities of any change of address. The identity of typhoid carriers is confidential information which health authorities do not reveal as long as the carrier cooperates and legal measures do not have to be invoked for the enforcement of control measures.

At present there is a total of 267 known typhoid carriers in Michigan, of which 16 live in the Upper Peninsula. There is one each in Baraga, Chippewa, Iron and Menominee counties; three each in Dickinson and Gogebic; four in Marquette and two in Mackinac.

The main source of cases of typhoid is the carriers, known and unknown, who spread the disease through the medium of milk, food and private water supplies. Michigan has had no case of typhoid fever attributable to a municipal water supply in 15 years. There have been 33 cases of typhoid in Michigan to Oct. 1 this year. Three of the total were in the Upper Peninsula, one each in Iron, Menominee and Ontonagon counties.

Mrs. Gilbert Heads Make-up Group For Kiwanis Minstrel

Mrs. A. M. Gilbert of this city has been appointed chairman of make-up by the Kiwanis club for their minstrel show which will be presented on Nov. 6 for children, and on Nov. 8-9 for adults.

Mrs. Karl Gray is co-chairman of the project which will require black-face make-up for 120 persons. All members of house committee as well as the cast will be made up.

Burnt cork, the standby of minstrels in yesteryears and the bug-a-boo for sensitive faces, will not be used. Grease paint, the same as used on the professional stage, will be the make-up medium.

Members of Escanaba Civic Theatre will assist Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Gray in make-up. On this committee are Janet Oberg, Eileen Torphy, Jane Dutton, Mary Alice Rasche, Patricia Farrell, Robert Schrader, Helen Master-son, Rose LaChapelle, Mary Masterson, Jeannette Roth and Lois Dewitz. ## FRESHMAN, 15, POLIO VICTIM

Powers-Spalding School To Continue Open

Ernest DePas, 15, a freshman at Powers-Spalding High school, today is receiving treatment in St. Luke's hospital, Marquette, where he was taken last night suffering with infantile paralysis.

It is the first and only case of polio reported in the Powers-Spalding area so far this year and school authorities said the schools will not be closed.

The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ignus DePas of Gourlay township, Menominee county. Mrs. DePas is a teacher in the Powers-Spalding High school and Mr. DePas is a school bus driver.

The case is the fourth reported in Menominee county so far this year. One was that of a child visiting in the county, and the other three were residents. Delta county has had two reported polio cases, both in the city of Escanaba. One was a girl six years old, and the other was five.

In the Upper Peninsula there have been 22 cases of infantile paralysis reported so far this year. In the Copper Country the incidence of polio has been sufficiently high to cause school authorities to close schools in nine communities.

Health officials have pointed out that many slight cases of polio go unrecognized and are never reported.

The Kiwanis show will be presented as a benefit for underprivileged children and children's activities in the community.

Sam Ham and Bruce Packard are in charge of direction.

U. P. Historical Group Envisaged By Dr. Beeson

Important to the community in teaching democracy as its library or its schools is the local historical society, Dr. Lewis Beeson, executive secretary of the Michigan Historical Society and Historical Commission, told the members of the Delta County Historical Society in meeting last night in Escanaba.

"If we are to make democracy strong and arouse the will to defend it we must collect and preserve our history and make it known, particularly to our school children," Dr. Beeson said. "This can best be done at the local level."

The Delta county Historical Society was complimented by the executive secretary of the Michigan Historical Society, who is now completing a two-week visit in the Upper Peninsula.

"We desire a number of flourishing societies in the Upper Peninsula," Dr. Beeson said. "There should be one at the Soo and Houghton. Marquette has one and I hope they will be organized in Menominee and Ironwood. There is a need for neighboring historical societies because each benefits from the activities of the other. I hope to see an Upper Peninsula Historical association formed, and we can then invite other states in for regional conferences on the history of the upper Great Lakes."

Dr. Beeson was introduced by Frank Bender Jr., Ford River, president of the Delta county society. Bender announced plans for the collection and display of articles depicting Delta county history.

It was suggested by Dr. Beeson that historical exhibits be taken to the schools, and that material be collected showing how peoples of various nationalities and cultures have contributed to enrich American life.

As the Delta county Historical Society grows and adds to its collections it will need more space. Meanwhile he suggested that it might work toward the preparation of a county map showing trails and roads and historic places of interest both to the people of the community and the tourist visitor.

Roadside markers, with a brief message describing the historic place and its significance, were recommended as a project for the Historical Society. These are important in an area where the tourist business is an economic factor to the community.

Michigan history has been diffused, and its collection and preservation is now being carried on to a large degree in other states, Dr. Beeson said. But in Michigan there is now under way a revival of interest in a project to make the state's history known and understood by its citizens.

LOOK OUT FOR PIN-WORMS

Recent medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children (and growing too) may be victims of Pin-Worms—often without suspecting what is wrong! And these pests, living inside the human body, can cause real distress.

So watch out for the warning signs that may mean "Pin-Worms"—especially the aggravating rectal itch. Get JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions.

P-W is the Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, after years of patient research. The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.

Ask your druggist: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Meanwhile the lumbering history of the United States is being compiled at St. Paul; the Finnish American Society has its headquarters in Minneapolis when it should be in Hancock; the history of the Great Lakes is centered in Cleveland, Dr. Beeson reported.

Other states have strong well-knit historical societies and Michigan is now making an effort to revitalize its historical organizations, including the encouragement of societies at the local level.

Do You Want A State Income Tax?

THE VOTER who places an X in the square for a "No" vote on Amendment No. 2, the proposal to repeal the sales tax diversion amendment, should know that in all probability he is voting for a state income tax and perhaps also for miscellaneous nuisance taxes.

The state controller, John A. Perkins, has made that clear in an interview at Lansing recently. Perkins pointed out that the state simply cannot operate with the limited funds available to it after the sales tax is split up under the formula now in operation. The inevitable result will be the imposition of new taxes. Legislators are thinking in terms of a state income tax as the only logical way to recover sufficient money to operate the state, Perkins added. Moreover, the legislators will regard rejection of the proposal to repeal the sales tax diversion amendment as a "green light" to impose an income tax or make whatever other financial adjustments may be regarded as necessary.

Perkins made another observation that is particularly pertinent regarding this issue. He said that if the diversion is maintained it will backfire against the schools in the long run. The special favors granted the schools in the amendment will constitute the maximum of state aid that will be forthcoming at any time and when the time comes that the schools will need more money than the amendment gives them, they will be at a dead end. That this condition is probable is indicated by the fact that the sales tax revenue is now swollen by inflation. Eventually when the retrenchment comes, the schools will be hard hit, caught in the web of their own spinning.

UN Is 3 Years Old

THE UNITED NATIONS is now three years old. Despite its obvious shortcomings and the barriers it faces because of the abusive exercise of the veto authority by Soviet Russia, the United Nations, in the words of Trygve Lie, "has grown constantly in strength until today it is without a doubt the most important single factor in the world for peace."

The world organization is now passing through its most critical tests, confronted as it is by the cold war of the west vs. Russian Communism. If it can ride out this storm, it can materialize the hopes of the world as an effective medium for international discipline.

At the moment the United Nations is tortured with growing pains. It lacks the authority to effectively enforce its decisions because the members, although agreed on the principle of an UN police force, have disagreed on the manner in which the police force will be organized. It does have the weapon of world opinion, a force that is steadily growing in strength. It is that strength that Secretary General Trygve Lie referred to in his anniversary broadcast from Paris on Sunday.

The obstructive tactics of Soviet Russia, evidenced particularly by Russia's reckless use of its veto authority, have embarrassed the world organization and have prevented the United Nations from attaining its maximum effectiveness as a force for world peace. Nevertheless, reasonable people must concede that the UN is making progress and that it still constitutes the major hopes of a war-weary world for the peaceful settlement of problems between nations.

Record Vote Likely

FORECASTERS are predicting the largest vote in the nation's history on Nov. 2, something in the neighborhood of 55,000,000 ballots in the presidential contest. The previous high was slightly under 50,000,000 in the 1940 election.

One reason for the expected heavier vote, of course, is the population increase in this country. Another and certainly more significant reason is the reawakening of appreciation in the importance of the ballot for the preservation of American heritages. The growing conflict between democracy and Communism has focused attention upon the privileges of democracy that our nation through the years has taken for granted. Now we are beginning to realize that if we want to retain those privileges and individual liberties we must make a fight for them. And the fight must necessarily be made through the medium of the voting franchise.

Even with the record vote that is expected Nov. 2, we will have a long way to go to reach the optimum objective which is, of course, the attainment of as near as possible a 100 per cent vote. At best, no more than 65 per cent of the eligible voters in the United States will cast ballots on Nov. 2. The comparison with foreign countries is not good from our viewpoint. Most foreign countries regularly get out more than 80 per cent of the eligible voters, even where the franchise is voluntary as it is in this country.

The educational campaign to encourage eligible citizens to register and to vote must be continued with vigor as a safeguard for our way of life.

New Military Alliance

THE UNSTABLE political situation in France, where Communist maneuvers have undermined the economic foundation of the country, is being watched with keen interest in the United States. The latest of the Communist efforts in France is the coal strike which impedes the country's economic recovery program.

The United States, of course, has more than a passing interest in the French situation. We are pouring hundreds of millions of dollars into France under the Marshall plan and the more obstacles that are tossed into the way of economic recovery there, the more financial aid will be required from this country.

Also closely allied with the economic situation in France is the projected military alliance embracing the United States, Canada, Britain, France and the so-called Benelux countries, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. It is recognized that the security chain which the western powers are endeavoring to forge is dependent on the strength, economically and politically, of the individual countries.

Considerable preliminary work previously has already been done towards the military alliance, although American participation will depend upon approval of the U. S. senate. The plan will mean an additional outlay of American funds to aid in the rearming of friendly European countries but the shaky foundation upon which the peace of the world is resting leaves us with virtually no other choice.

MEN WHO GIVE

(Christian Science Monitor)

Sacrifices made by men who have given themselves to the fight against liquor are rarely heard of by the public. The executive secretary of the Massachusetts Temperance League for instance, is now absorbed in building up its resources for the most intensive work it has done in recent years. He reluctantly grants that both he and the league have found the financing rough going in the past, but swiftly and enthusiastically reports that things are picking up for the league and that its support is gaining. He dwells on the league's program of prevention, its educational plans especially for the protection of the young, and its legislative work. The goal overshadows everything else.

A number of the state leaders of the Temperance League over the country are ministers. They could have had better paying positions as pastors of churches where they were loved by their congregations. But they have chosen instead the uphill struggle to check the expansion of the powerful traffic in alcohol. Often in legislative tussles over liquor laws they have outsmarted the entire liquor lobby. Their labors have protected thousands of people.

Frequently unrecognized, the devotion of these men has been indispensable to the cause of temperance.

VANDENBERG'S REALISM

(Marquette Mining Journal)

Looking across the Atlantic, Senator Vandenberg tells the Europeans Congress will want concrete evidence of Europe's readiness to put its house in order. The senator wants the Marshall Plan nations to end the attempt to gain economic health "in 16 air-tight, competitive compartments." His warning is from a practical politician who knows the hurdles European aid has to overcome in Congress.

To his own countrymen the senator is just as plain-spoken. The billions we are spending for Europe are working for our own defense. We are not engaged in a purely philanthropic enterprise. The charity Congress is showing to Europe comes in part from our own self-interest.

In the senator's words our European Recovery Program "is not a fuzzy excursion into dreamland. It is the bare bones of reality."

Unity among the 16 Marshall Plan nations would immensely lighten our future burden of overseas aid. But this country cannot withdraw its helping hand even if Europe makes too slow progress towards a distant goal. The fight against Communism over there is our battle.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby

ENGLISH AS SHE IS SPOKE

Many Milwaukee readers have written to me about certain speech peculiarities that are common to the region. Numerous articles on the subject have appeared in the Milwaukee Journal. One letter to the editor asks, "Can it be that Wisconsin has a language all its own?"

A high school department head reports hearing on a streetcar recently: "Why don't you hello me when you know me so easy?" A secretary states that constructions such as these are common: "After the show we'll go home, enna?" "This afternoon we'll pick some berries, ain't so?"

The use of "all" in the meaning of "all gone out of stock, no longer available," is often heard in Wisconsin, as it is in parts of Pennsylvania. "The pie is all," means that there isn't any more pie. "The rain is all," means that it has stopped raining.

"Any more" is commonly used in the meaning of now, as: "She is staying by my house any more." Or: "The dog is sick any more."

The hair of one's head is spoken of in the plural, as: "My hairs are dirty; they need washing. And look how gray they are getting, ain't?"

Pres. Truman and Dewey Compared

BY PETER EDSON

Washington, (NEA)—President Truman at Akron and Governor Dewey at Pittsburgh gave the voters their first real basis for comparison of the two candidates' campaign promises on specific issues. They line up like this:

MINIMUM WAGE LAW: Truman—"I believe that we should increase the minimum wage from 40 cents an hour to at least 75 cents an hour." Dewey—"The present minimum wage set by law is far too low and it will be raised."

Both statements head the same way. The difference is that Truman is specific and Dewey is general. Truman advocated his increase during the last Congress but was blocked by the Republicans.

SOCIAL SECURITY: Truman—"I believe Social Security should be extended to the large groups of people not now protected. I believe that the insurance benefits should be increased by approximately 50 per cent." Dewey—"We will overhaul the Social Security system for the unemployed and the aged and go forward to extend its coverage and increase its benefits."

Both statements head the same way. The difference is that Truman is specific and Dewey is general. The difference is that President Truman advocated his increases during the last Congress, while Republicans were in control. The Congress passed a bill increasing aid to the aged and blind by $5 to $50 a month, increased aid to dependent children by $3 a month to $27. Then the bill blocked inclusion of 500,000 salesmen and others not now covered. This was passed over the President's veto.

BOTH WANT LOWER PRICES

COST OF LIVING: Truman—"I believe we should do something, at once, about high prices." Dewey—"We will make sure that soaring prices do not steal food, clothing and other necessities from American families."

Both statements head the same way. The difference is that Truman spelled out a specific anti-inflation program for the special session of Congress. This program was largely blocked by the last Congress while Republicans were in control. The difference is that Dewey hasn't said how he proposes to carry out his promise.

HOUSING: Truman—"I believe the Congress should provide aid for slum clearance and low-rent housing." Dewey—"We will break the log jam in housing so that decent houses may be provided at reasonable cost for our people."

Both statements head the same way. The difference is that President Truman specifically supported the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill in full. In the housing bill finally passed by the special session, slum clearance and low-rent housing sections were killed by the Republican Congress. This, however, is not the complete housing story. New York state's record in slum clearance and building of subsidized rental housing for low-income families under Governor Dewey is above criticism. If he can do as well in a federal housing program, there can be no complaint.

HERE IS A REAL DIFFERENCE

TAFT-HARTLEY LABOR LAW: Truman—"I believe that we should repeal the Taft-Hartley Act." Dewey—"The new law is not perfect. . . wherever and whenever it needs change it will be changed."

Here there is real difference. There is no question about what the President's statement means. But Governor Dewey's statement could mean anything. It could mean that some sections of the act might be made stiffer as well as it could mean that some sections might be repealed.

What Dewey apparently means is explained in other sections of the Pittsburgh speech. He said that the Taft-Hartley law had reduced strikes instead of increased them, that it had reduced the discharge rate instead of increased it, that the Truman administration had itself used the law seven times to head off major strikes, being successful in six cases.

What this brief comparison on social issues shows is that aside from their opposite stands on the Taft-Hartley law—there isn't so much difference in the objectives of Mr. Truman and Mr. Dewey. The difference is in what they seem to stand for and what the last Congress actually did. This reduces the campaign to an issue of whether Mr. Dewey might get more out of Congress than Mr. Truman did. Odds are that he might.

One hears: "The car needs washed. The fence needs mended. My floor needs polished."

"Borrow me ten dollars" means "lend me ten dollars." "Did you find back your ring?" one will ask. The reply is likely to be: "That's for sure, and was I ever glad." Such locutions are the result of German influence, and are usually translations into English of German words and expressions. For instance, "The money is all" is a literal translation of "das Geld ist alle," for "alle" means "all gone, all spent, at an end, exhausted."

A similar state of affairs exists in the Rhode Island city of Woonsocket, where French-Canadian-descended people make up three-quarters of the population.

Woonsocket speech is strongly flavored with French. The city has French newspapers, movies, and radio programs. Most retail clerks are required to speak English and French. According to the National Geographic Magazine for August, 1948, "Often French and English mix in a hybrid tongue; at a baseball game an excited fan may yell, 'Frappe un home run, Joe, or Attends un base on balls.'"

Why is it incorrect to say "feel badly, look badly" etc.? These common mistakes are corrected in simple, nontechnical language in Mr. Colby's pamphlet, C-10. ## This Cloak of Optimism Seems to Be All Front

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

PROWLERS—Escanaba is a generally law-abiding community with a low crime-rate and an occasional flare-up of breakings and enterings.

Many residents of the city, and probably of the county as well, do not lock their doors at night when they retire. Just as many people are in the habit of not locking their cars when they park them along the street.

One of the best ways to discourage prowlers and petty thieves is to lock up your home and your car. Admittedly, this will not discourage the professional burglar, who can jimmy open a window or pick the lock on a door with ease. But the locked door and the fastened window are a deterrent to the novice in crime.

AMUSING—Motorists who leave the keys in their cars when they park downtown have found their cars driven off when they returned from shopping. Often the cars were taken by mistake, and not stolen.

We know of one instance where a housewife took her two young children with her on a shopping trip. The children were playing in the back seat of the parked car when they heard the front door of the car open. They quickly hid behind the seat, planning to surprise their mother. But the lady who got into the car, started the motor and backed out of the parking place was not their mother—but a total stranger. When the children peeked up to discover the driver was not their mother they let out a shriek that brought the woman out of her woolgathering. Neither the car nor the children were hers. She quickly parked the car again and dashed about three cars down the line to her own—one of similar make and color.

NOT SO FUNNY—It is not so amusing, however, to have your car stolen and wrecked, or your home entered and ransacked by burglars.

There is the added shock to the nervous system in awakening at night to discover that a prowler is in the house. The misgiving and fear that grips the person roused from sound sleep in the late night to hear a footstep in the hall, or the slight sound of an opening door, can be imagined. Actual terror still grips one woman we know when she recalls her experiences while living in a large city. Knowing that prowlers were in the neighborhood she had locked her doors. While in the kitchen she saw the doorknob turn. She telephoned the police, who confirmed her suspicion. A man had tried to enter while she and her young children were alone in the house.

THE LOUD SCREAM—The prowler and the burglar, the thug and "Peeping Tom" fear discovery most of all.

While the best protection against them is the locked door and the drawn shade, there is another weapon recommended by police officers. A wim's screams, a man's shouts for help, are usually effective in nattering the departure of the uninvited guest. Or you might purchase a shrill-sounding police whistle and

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Munising—Wrecking of the city dock at the foot of Elm street was started Monday. The old dock will be replaced by a new modern structure to be constructed in conjunction with the PWA.

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lynotte are in Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. Lynotte is receiving treatment in Mayo clinic. Gladstone—Miss Helen Mae Hedin spent the weekend in LaCrosse, Wis., where she attended the homecoming of the LaCrosse State Teachers college.

Manistique—Mr. and Mrs. John Krusac have returned to their home in Minneapolis after attending funeral services here for Michael Krusac.

Manistique—Mrs. Leo Thomas and son Lawrence of Detroit are spending two weeks here with Mrs. Arthur Tebo and daughter Mrs. Jay Krummich.

Gladstone—Rev. R. C. G. Williams, pastor of First Methodist church, last night told a large audience of his experiences in Europe this past summer. Escanaba—Miss Lydia Kallshiek, Milwaukee aviatrix and former resident of Escanaba, has opened a school of aviation in Green Bay.

Everyone who has a life insurance policy is a capitalist. Experience has shown that capitalism is the most effective system of incentive for human effort. Earl Bunting, board chairman, National Association of Manufacturers.

keep it handy for emergencies. Women can tuck them into handbags. And the old-fashioned halpin is still considered women's most effective defensive weapon.

NOT RECOMMENDED—Should you keep a loaded pistol in the house?

Better not, unless you are a police officer or a person so thoroughly familiar with the use of firearms that you can be trusted to use it calmly. A loaded gun beneath the pillow, beside the bed, or in a bureau drawer may also be an invitation to tragedy. Each year there are reports of frightened persons who unintentionally shoot and kill innocent persons they believe to be burglars.

PULL THEM DOWN—Householders encourage the attention of window peepers by leaving their shades undrawn at night.

The "Peeping Tom" may be a harmless individual but the glimpse of a strange face peering in through a window late at night is disconcerting, to say the least. Police officers know that in some cases the window peeper is a budding criminal who may become the molester of women and a rapist.

Persons who fail to draw their shades in sleeping rooms after nightfall not only lack modesty but a sense of alarm. Every community has "Peeping Toms." Many are harmless. Better to draw the shades than to be the subject of their scrutiny.

Lock your doors, use your telephone in case of emergency at night—and don't be afraid to scream and yell if you hear or see a prowler.

Keep the shades drawn or you may suffer the embarrassment of the old maid who was disrobing in front of an opened window. The window peeper approached, reached inside and pulled down the shade.

New York, (AP)—So I'm a reactionary, an enemy of progress. So what? I still won't go to the 40th National Business Show which opens in New York today. A spy whispered to me, "they are showing the latest high speed and electronic office machines which increase human output and efficiency in some cases more than 100 times. The new office equipment also has eye appeal."

How efficient can you get? And why? There's something terrifying in the way people are always figuring out ways to make us more and more efficient. And don't talk to me about eye appeal.

I like what I see now. I'm looking at a red-headed secretary across the room and if any scientist tries to replace her with a machine I'll beat him over the head with a small electron.

Gadgets Scare Writer

One thing they're going to have at the business show fascinates me, the rest scares me. This one gadget should help promote human relations in business offices which otherwise are growing more and more mechanistic. It's called the "Secretary's Merry Go-Round," which "allows one or two seated persons to float to any desired point within a large area, serving, for example, an executive between two or more desks."

Imagine the base of a barber's chair. That's what this thing is built on. On the base are two independent arms, which can swing backward or forward or around. On the end of each arm is a chair. At the other end is a tail light. Nobody told me what the tail light is for.

This kind of thing intrigues me but when you start talking about "completely automatic typewriters" I get a little shaky. They've got one now which "permits complete typing of a letter from heading to conclusion without manual attention." That means, of course, I see less of the red-headed secretary.

This monster types about 200 letters and addresses 1200 envelopes in a day. It contains a dual roll, similar to a player-piano music roll. On one side is the letter, on the other the addresses.

The machine automatically reverses from one side to the other when a letter is completely typed. Envelopes are addressed by flicking a switch.

Calculator Speeded Up

They've got another gadget for converting a used recording disc into a good as new one, which involves a heating and cooling cycle done within 21 seconds. And to symbolize the renewing life of the discs the gadget includes the likeness of a green-eyed cat, whose eyes flash and head wobbles.

Finally, there is a high-speed calculator which can figure a problem more than 100 times faster than any human, or so I'm told. All calculations of multiplication, division, cross addition and cross subtraction are handled electronically. You just put in your card, light a cigaret and the machine shoots your card out with all the answers before you've taken two puffs.

Put one of my expense accounts in the machine and it would probably spit fire and wret handkerchiefs around my wrists, and that's why I'm at going to the 40th National Business Show opening in New York.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

En Route Through Midwest.—Too many voters have the idea that once they pick a president every four years their voting job as American citizens is over. They don't seem to realize that no president, no matter what the party, can get put across a program without an intelligent Congress.

If Congress is made up of party hacks and hangers-on, chiefly interested in patronage and nepotism, almost any administration will bog down. With a view to sorting out the congressional wheat from the chaff, therefore, here is the Washington Merry-Go-Round scorecard of Congress.

First, no attempt is made to evaluate Southern Democrats, since their real election comes in the primaries. These are the congressmen who don't deserve to be re-elected. Those who merit re-election will follow in a subsequent column.

THE LIST

Charles K. Fletcher, San Diego, Cal., Republican—tool of the real-estate lobby, has been under federal investigation for loaning money from his building-and-loan association to build a hotel on land sold a contractor by the congressman's father. Next to Rep. Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, Fletcher was the lobby's chief inside executioner of public housing.

Robert F. Rockwell, Colorado, Republican—Though one of the wealthiest men in the state, he has put a local political leader, Crissa B. Pond, on the government payroll at $292.93 a month, supposedly as a member of Rockwell's office staff. However, Pond, never in Washington, travels with Rockwell during his campaign. Rockwell has voted consistently against all progressive measures.

Edwin A. Hall, Binghamton, N. Y., Republican—Has four members of his family on the payroll, from his father down to his 16-year-old daughter who has been a student at Maryland university. Voting record—reactionary.

Leo Isacson, New York, Laborite—Never amounted to much more than a weak echo of Sen. Glen Taylor and Rep. Vito Marcantonio. Republicans and Democrats are joining forces to oust him from his short-term seat. Disarming manner, dogged will.

Howard Buffett, Nebraska, Republican—A jack-of-all-trades, a run-at-the-mouth politician and bedrock reactionary. Once he even upbraided Sen. Arthur Vandenberg for his liberal views and "token democracy." Goes off half-cocked on any and all questions. Nervous, abrupt, honest.

Wat Arnold, Missouri, Republican—Taber-minded isolationist who can't see beyond his own corn patch. Bulky, earthy, placid, likable. Rarely opens his mouth in Congress but keeps the voters in line by writing lengthy newsletters to constituents in which he preaches thrift, and homey, over-the-back-fence philosophy.

Harold Youngblood, Michigan, Republican—A wishy-washy conservative. Deserted his city constituents by opposing rent control.

TO THE WEST

John Sanborn, Idaho Republican—Never opened his mouth in the House except to cast his vote with the hard-shelled isolationists who oppose Dewey—Vandenberg policies. So inconspicuous alongside his colleagues that he was almost anonymous, but used his free-mailing privileges to spread propaganda for silver lobbyist John McBride.

Frank Barrett, Wyoming, Republican—Darling of the big cattlemen even though he, himself, happens to be a sheepman. Fought against Jackson Hole National Monument because it removed some grazing land from the cattlemen in favor of scenic beauty.

Wint Smith, Kansas, Republican—Has been just as poor as a congressman as he was an attorney for the Kansas highway commission.

Bert Gearhart, California, Republican—Has a consistent record in favor of the California wine interests, for isolation, and no reached a new high in statesmanship when he introduced a bill barring newsboys from social security benefits.

TOWARD THE EAST

Horace Seely-Brown, Connecticut, Republican—A pushbutton party liner. Party leaders merely push the buzzer and Seely-Brown votes as they tell him. Was one of five House members who voted against higher education allowances for war vets. P. W. Griffiths, Ohio, Republican—A do-nothing congressman, who once admitted to newsmen that in four years he had never delivered a single speech.

Fred Smith, Ohio, Republican—A horse doctor who left any horse sense at home when he came to Congress.

Raymond Burke, Ohio, Republican—Travels at rocking-chair speed in an atomic age. Lets the G. O. P. bosses do his thinking. Studious, old, kindly, his only accomplishment was a bill setting up federal game preserves.

Robert McGarvey, Pennsylvania, Republican—Colorless. Backseat congressman. Well-meaning, but a lightweight. Content to follow the House leadership.

C. W. Bishop, Illinois, Republican—Never should have given up tailoring for politics. His chief claim to notoriety is that when a group of congressmen called at the Vatican he talked back to his holiness, the Pope.

Fred Crawford, Michigan, Republican—Acid-tongued, he is always talking his way into trouble, defiantly opposed admitting Hawaii into the union because he didn't want to have a couple of "Jap" senators; later reversed himself and supported both Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood. Created a furor by demanding that John Virden resign from the commerce department because his daughter worked for Soviet news agency Tass; was forced to eat his words when it turned out Virden was a friend of the G. O. P. Divides his time between his office and a Maryland farm.

The average woman is only as old as she feels—like admitting.

Fire Marshal Hunts Cause Of $200,000 Flint Trolley Blaze

Flint, Mich., (AP)—The State Fire Marshal's office Monday opened an inquiry into a Saturday blaze that caused $200,000 damage to the Flint Trolley Coach Co. barn here.

C. W. Lucas, manager of the Coach Company, said the damage was twice what it originally was believed. He estimated that six to nine months would be required to complete repairs to the barn and equipment.

Two buses were destroyed and 58 damaged, Lucas said.

Flint police, after an investigation, said there was no evidence that the fire was set. However, they planned a conference with the fire marshal in an effort to discover the cause.

Local 170, CIO Transport Workers, have been on strike against the coach company since Sept. 17.

Margaret Chase
Smith's Record
Major Victory

By Ruth Cowan

Washington, Oct. 26 (AP)—Women interested in politics have already scored a major victory this year—the election of Margaret Chase Smith as senator from Maine.

She is the first member of her sex to win a seat in the Senate on her legislative record in the House.

A Republican, Mrs. Smith has served in Congress since 1940, when she was elected to fill out the term of her late husband, Rep. Clyde H. Smith. Her Senate victory was chalked up in Maine's September 13 state election.

Just as they did for the first time two years ago, women again hold a slight edge over men in the number of potential ballot casters next month.

But while feminine representation in Congress dropped during the last session—from 11 in the 79th Congress to seven in the 80th—women workers in all parties are hoping for a better showing November 2.

Re-Election a Habit

Most politicians think the chances are tops that the women veterans of the House—Mrs. Mary T. Norton, Democrat of New Jersey, and Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, Republican of Massachusetts, will be on hand again in January to answer roll.

Re-election has come to be a habit with them.

Vivacious "battling Mary" Norton, the first woman to head a major House committee—that of labor—has weathered 12 previous campaigns. Only a few months junior in service is Mrs. Rogers, who now heads the important veterans committee.

In addition to Mrs. Rogers, the two other Republican women incumbents, Mrs. Frances Bolton of Ohio, and Mrs. Katharine St. George of New York, are running for reelection.

And along with Mrs. Norton, another veteran Democrat up for another term is Mrs. Helen Gahagan Douglas of California, actress wife of Melvin Douglas.

Mrs. Georgia L. Lusk, the newest feminine member of Congress, lost her renomination bid in the New Mexico Democratic primary in June.

Women Candidates

All told there are ten women Democratic candidates for the House this year, one less than in 1946, and five Republicans, one more than two years ago. Major parties have a total of 20 for the House, four for governor, and one for the Senate. The latter is Mrs. Virginia Foster Durr, Progressive, running in Virginia.

Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, Democrat of Connecticut, who served in the 79th Congress, and was defeated in 1946, is up again. Mrs. Olive Remington Goldman, who lost her bid in the last election, also is trying again on the Democratic ticket in Illinois.

Other Democratic House candidates include:

Mrs. Violet Patterson of Michigan; Mrs. Marcella F. Killen of Minneapolis; Miss Mary Louise Nice of New York, who is also on the Liberal ticket; Miss Julia Maletta of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Jessie Sanders of South Dakota, and Mrs. Reva Beck Bosone of Utah.

The two Republican contestants seeking a first term are Mrs. Camille Geneau of Florida, and Mrs. Cecil Harden of Indiana.

spent Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wells.

Misses Lily and Irene Sharon and their mother, Mrs. Frank Sharon of Menominee visited with relatives here Sunday and attended the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new school.

Miss Gertrude Paul of Milwaukee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Paul, 609 North 19th street, and Anthony Collura of Milwaukee, son of Joseph Collura, were married at Salem Ev. Lutheran church Saturday afternoon, October 24, at 4 o'clock. The marriage vows were repeated before Rev. William F. Lutz.

Miss Irma Paul, soloist of the service, sang "Oh Perfect Love." The bridal processional and recessional were played by Miss Helen Lutz.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hartline, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

RUARK PROUD OF COLLEAGUE

Armed Guardsman Next Florida Governor

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

New York, Oct. 25—The passing of Adm. Ernie King's gray uniforms for naval officers has rejoined an old joke which might stand as a preamble to this piece. It seems a lieutenant (jg) still wearing his battered khakis hove onto a very taut base, during the late war. He was fresh in from sea.

The poor innocent was immediately chewed out by the first ranking Wave officer who saw him. "Don't you know?" She stormed, "that the uniform of the day is gray working clothes, and that it's Adm. King's own pet idea? You got rocks in your head? What's your branch of the service?"

"I'm in the armed guard," the poor fellow muttered. "Ride around with a navy crew on merchant ships..."

"Oh," said the Wave, brightly. "That's different. You guys aren't supposed to know anything. But you'll find the bar over yonder. It opens promptly at 1630 hours."

Gov. Elect of Florida

As a member of that particular service, which did so much to prolong the war, I have always resented the snide allegation that our boys were sent to sea in order to make room for Waves in shore jobs, and that the secret departmental hope was we'd all get lost until after VJDay. We were dumb, but willing, and it wasn't our fault if we thought a sextant was a man on janitor duty in church.

It is, then, with considerable pride I announce that our service has produced a respectable citizen, who is making notable strides in the civil world and reflecting all sorts of credit on our raggedy-seat fraternity. Gentlemen, I give you the Hon. Fuller Warren, ex-army guardsman, governor-elect of the state of Florida. I learned about our distinguished colleague in Miami, last week.

The Hon. Fuller, who takes office in January, neither drinks nor smokes. Mind that well—you, ex-Lieut. Stuppi of Chicago; you, ex-Lieut. Taussig of St. Louis—you all, Sugg of Oregon, Romero of Houston, Irion of Washington, Powell of Richmond. Are any of you mugs governors, yet? Have you done anything to dignify our service? The answer is no.

While you guys were shooting down friendly aircraft, getting sunk by submarines and throwing each other through foreign bar-room windows, the Hon. Fuller was making hay. No roistering in Piccadilly for him—no smoke-filled sly grogshops in Italy, no raucous cabarets in Casablanca.

While you guys were snoring in your sacks, this boy was canvassing hospitals all over Europe. He was looking up kids from Florida, and then he was writing their folks that Johnny was doing great, and was surely a candidate for the congressional medal. He was bringing cheer to every swabberoo, doughfoot and leatherhead he could find, and was impressing their parents that at least one Floridian had their interests at heart.

Ever since he was old enough to get defeated for a job as page-boy in the Florida legislature, Fuller Warren has been practicing up to be governor. Now he's gone and done it, and he didn't have to hang around with the heelers in the poolhalls to do it, either. You, ex-Lieutenant Rossiter, of Melbourne, Fla.—You're a lawyer. Why ain't you governor of Florida? I'm disgusted with the pack of you.

I hate to lecture, at this late date, but there never was enough seriousness in our service. You remember Irion, of Washington. They told him to keep a day-to-day log, and he came back with just one entry. I quote: "Easter Sunday. Put stuffed rabbit on captain's table."

How do you expect to get anywhere with that kind of feather-headed frivolity? You couldn't get elected dog-catcher with it. I tell you, men, time is growing short. Some of our bunch had better achieve something that isn't connected with gimball endurance records, or history will sneer at us. Get in there and pitch, because if Warren can be governor it proves we are basically noble men.

The Arizona state museum at Tucson contains Navajo Indian sand paintings believed to be the only ones preserved.

STATE POLICE SEEKING MEN

Sgt. Wixom Will Aid In Making Application

Sgt. Willard Wixom, commander of the Gladstone Post of the Michigan State Police, will be at his office Tuesday, Nov. 9 from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m., to interview young men interested in joining the department.

"While candidates for enlistment may make application at any time, this day is being set aside especially for interviews with those who desire to learn more about the department and to help them fill out their application blanks," Sgt. Wixom said.

"We are at present conducting a recruiting effort in preparation for another training school. We expect to get enough graduates out of this school to bring our force up to authorized strength, so it is advisable that candidates do not delay, but act now in filing their applications. Succeeding schools will be held only to make replacements unless authorization is given to increase the size of the department."

Candidates must be between 21 and 30 years of age, inclusive, physically fit, unmarried, and have a high school education or its equivalent.

Regarded as a career service, the State Police offer subsistence in addition to salary, civil service employment security, interesting work, promotions based on merit, paid vacations, sick leave and a pension. In addition, the Veterans' Administration has classified the State Police training school as on-the-job training and veterans are eligible for extra compensation under the GI bill.

While candidates will find it advantageous to call at the post, Sgt. Wixom said, they need not do so, but may obtain information and application blanks by writing to the Civil Service Commission or the Michigan State Police in Lansing.

Sidelights Of Escanaba-Marquette Game

BY JIM WARD
(Sports Editor)

Caught on the rebound at the Escanaba-Marquette game, a cold glance at statistics of Saturday's game does not give a clear picture of the Eskymos' superiority over its Wisconsin rival. . . . Escanaba made 11 first downs to five for Marquette, but its net yardage was 240, compared with Marquette's 202. . . . The explanation of this is that the Marquette figure includes Vernon Schatzczenski's 71-yard run and the Jim Strem-Jack Plautz 81-yard pass completion in the last second of play.

Of course, they have a right to be included. . . . We're not arguing that. . . . But anyone who saw the game will agree those two plays were the exception to Marquette's play and not the rule. . . . And yet they account for 132 of Marquette's total gain of 202 yards. . . . In other words, cast out those two plays and you have only a 50-yard net gain for the Marquette against 240 for Escanaba. . . . And that, actually, is a truer picture of the game. . . . For discounting Schatzczenski's run and the 81-yard touchdown pass with the scrubs in the game in the last second, it was all Escanaba.

For example, Schatzczenski made 71 yards on that first-quarter dash, but Marquette's net rushing gain for the entire game was 50 yards. . . . And Schatzczenski, himself, made only seven yards the rest of the game. . . . Little Don Noel, frosh quarterback, made 11 yards in all to rank second among Marquette ground gainers. . . . As for passing, the Marquette gained 152 yards by air and more than half of them—81 to be exact—were made in that last-second play.

We do not cite these figures to inflate the Eskymo ego but merely to point out that this is an instance where cold statistics do not give the true picture. . . . So often a football fan says "The story is in the statistics." . . . But not in this instance, brother. . . . This analysis also serves to prove that Escanaba's superiority over Marquette was about on a par with its superiority over Kingsford and Iron Mountain.

Marquette's only first down the first half was Schatzczenski's 71-yard run. . . . And it made only two by rushing the last half. . . . Which gives you some idea of how efficiently Eskymo forwards performed. . . . It is difficult to single out any one player for commendation. . . . Against a big Marquette line, it was a solid performance from end to end.

Marquette's line was tough. Allan Blohm proved himself to be a rugged tackle. . . . Howie Leiburn, center, backed up the line well. . . . He was the fellow who intercepted the pass on the Escanaba three that led to Marquette's touchdown and later in the game he intercepted Howie Perron's jump pass on the Marquette 15. . . . Big Jim Strem looked good at end, also.

Speaking of intercepting passes, Alf Nelson got a thrill that comes seldom to a lineman, particularly a tackle, when he caught a Marquette pass in the fourth quarter. . . . Thirty-one Eskymos got in the Marquette game. . . . In addition to the starters, the following men saw action: Matt Smith, Gilbert Kangas, Dick Danielson, Gilbert Prevost, Jim Prokos, John Beaumier, Tom Nault, Jack Slapp, Alf Nelson, Jack Cloutier, Gerry Bink, Dave Johnson, Axel Anderson, Bill Elliot, Lloyd Olson, Bob Richards, Don Kvam, Bob Rogers, Bill Miller and Bob Frasher. . . . Nineteen Marquette saw action.

Longest Escanaba runs were Herb Nicholson's 40-yard return of an intercepted pass and 25-yard end run. . . . Howie Perron's 32-yard touchdown run and 30-yard kickoff return. . . . Pat Farrell's 23-yard run to the one-foot line that would easily have been a touchdown but for the fact that the few split seconds it took Pat to tuck in Carlson's pass gave Marquette defenders a chance to close in on him.

Thanks to Gerry Dufour for the help he has been giving us in the press box since his knee injury sidelined him. . . . He'll be with us at Gladstone next Saturday. . . . Gerry would much rather be down there on the field playing tough, believe us. . . . It was tough for him to hear the doctor say he was through for the season.

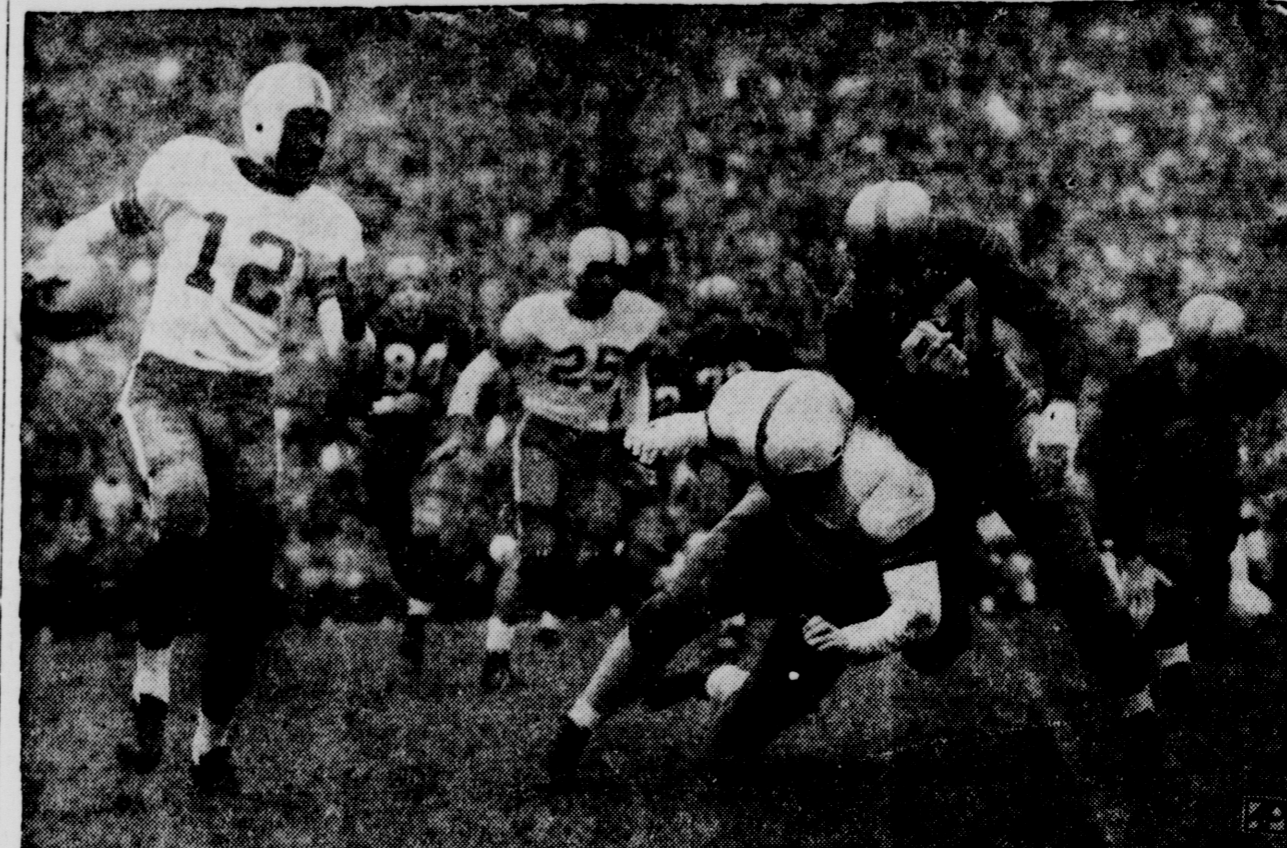

Congratulations to Coach Eldon "Cappy" Keil and the Gladstone Braves for winning that first victory of the season and the 100th since Keil started coaching at Gladstone. . . . Tom Bolger says now he can stop with those advance Gladstone football stories leading off with "Still seeking their first victory of the season. . . . For six successive weeks, Tom had to write that. . . . With a welcome 13-6 victory over Stephenson, he can relax now. . . . But the Braves can't. . . . They have to meet a powerful Escanaba eleven at home Saturday afternoon.

We have two orchids in the office this morning. . . . One has a card attached signifying it is to go to the Eskymo Bees and Coaches Jim Rouman and Steve Baltic for their second successive undefeated season. . . . The other is slated for Coach Dick Schram for his highly efficient work with Coach George Ruwisch this fall. . . . Schram and Ruwisch have brought the Eskymos to a high point of efficiency this year.

Incidentally, Rouman has an explanation for that high score (41-6) run up by his Bees in topping Marquette B last Saturday. . . . He says: "Ordinarily, we don't pass. Our work is to drill on fundamentals and emphasize ground work, that is rushing. But last Saturday—the last game of the season—the gang wanted to try some passes. So they did, and nearly every one they tried went for a touchdown. Just couldn't stop them, that's all."

If the success of the reserve squad is a criterion, the Eskymos are in for more big seasons as successful as the current one.

6 Holdovers On 1948 Major League All-Stars; Musial, Williams Lead

Escanaba Women Bowlers Reform For This Season

Since the membership of the Escanaba Women's Bowling association now includes bowlers from Rock and Gladstone as well as Escanaba, a new name is contemplated for the organization, officials said yesterday.

The association has a membership of more than 400, compared with 150 during its baptismal season, 1946-47, and 343 last season. Seventy six teams will compete this year.

At its organization meeting, it was determined the annual tournament would be held the last week in January and the first week in February, and the annual dinner will be served in March.

Association members plan to compete in the Great Northern tournament at Land O'Lakes in December, it was reported.

Officers of the association are Mrs. Gladys Hanson, president; Mrs. Ceal Ferguson, vice-president; Mrs. Fran McPherson, secretary, and Mrs. Edna Reynolds, sergeant-at-arms.

Rock bowlers use the Maple alleys in Rock. Gladstone home lanes are the Midway, and Escanaba bowlers use both the Arcade and Elks lanes.

By Joe Reichler

New York, Oct. 26. (P)—Five players from the American and five from the National make up the 1948 major league All-Star team as selected for the Associated Press by 220 baseball experts throughout the nation.

Only six of the 16 big league clubs, three in each league, are represented in the third annual all-star aggregation. The world champion Cleveland Indians won two berths as did the National league champion Braves.

The Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals, runners-up in their respective circuits, also placed two representatives each. One man from New York Yankees and one from the New York Giants complete the team.

Of the ten men selected, no fewer than six are holdovers from the 1947 all-star team. They consist of the entire infield of Johnny Mize, Joe Gordon, Bob Elliott and Lou Boudreau; Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio, who comprise two thirds of the outfield. Williams, slugging outfielder of the Red Sox, is the only performer to be elected to all three teams starting in 1946.

None Unanimous
No player was a unanimous choice, Stan Musial, the National league's batting king, and Williams, the champion stickman of the American league, were tied for the most votes. Each drew 212 of the 220 ballots cast.

All Williams' votes were for left field. Musial's were scattered over three positions. The Cardinals' great fly-chaser, who led his loop in batting, runs scored, hits, runs batted in, doubles and triples, drew 195 votes for right field, five for center and 12 for first base. The 27-year-old pride of Donora, Pa., won a place on the '46 all-star team at first, but lost out last year in the outfield to Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh.

DiMaggio, spark plug of the Yankees, won the centerfield post hands down with 210 votes, third highest total among the 63 vote-getters. DiMag, with Williams and Musial, make up one of the greatest hitting outfields ever put together on an all-star team. They hit 109 home runs and drove in 415 runs last season.

Feller Vote Is Low
Boudreau, playing manager of the Indians, and the logical choice for the American league's most valuable player award, ranked fourth with 209 votes to easily win the shortstop berth.

Nobody else topped the 200 mark. Johnny Mize of the Giants, who tied Kiner for the majors' home run crown with 40 circuit swats, received 118 votes and a Gordon, the Indians' great clutch-hitter, got 108.

Johnny Sain of the Braves gathered 140 votes to be named the righthanded pitcher of the team. The tall Arkansas curve ball specialist who won 24 games during the regular season, and shut out the Indians, 1-0, in the world series opener, more than doubled the 60 votes drawn by Bob Lemon, Cleveland's 20-game winner. Lemon, who walked off with two world series triumphs, was Sain's closest competitor.

The big surprise was the puny 10 votes awarded to Bob Feller, whose strong finish after a dismal start aided considerably to bring Cleveland its first flag in 28 years. The once most feared pitcher in baseball received only one more vote than Vic Raschi of the Yankees got. Rookie Bob Chenes of Pittsburgh got the remaining vote.

Kell Runnerup Again

The battle for the top lefthanded pitcher was much closer. Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, 20-game winner of the Cardinals, was the victor. He was backed by 90 votes to 80 for Hal Newhouser, who won 21 games for the second division Detroit Tigers. Warren Spahn, Sain's pitching mate on the Braves, received 30 votes. Johnny Schmitz of the Chicago Cubs got 14. Gene Bearden of the Indians, four; and Johnny Vander Meer of the Cincinnati Reds and Bill Wright of the Chicago White Sox, one apiece.

Birdie Tebbetts, peppery backstop of the Red Sox, failed to reach 100, but had enough to win the catching job. His 82 votes were 32 more than runner-up Jim Heston of Cleveland, was able to muster.

The smallest number required by any winner went to Elliott. The Braves' cleanup hitter received only 45 votes, about one fifth of the total cast, yet managed to take the third base job. Nine others were named for the hot corner position where the keenest competition developed.

George Kell of Detroit finished in the runner-up spot for the third consecutive year, with 40 votes. Ken Keltner of Cleveland was third with 36 ballots, only two more than his St. Louis Browns'

Montreal, Oct. 26. (P)—Eddie Sanford, sophomore center of the Boston Bruins, leads the National Hockey league's individual scoring race today.

The young Bruin picked up five points during the past week to wrest the lead from Montreal's Elmer Lach, the defending scoring champion, and Detroit's rookie center, Max McNab.

2nd Half Of Pro Cage Show Here Thursday To Be Intra-Squad Battle

The bunting is out. A program of intermission entertainment has been arranged. Cliff Frasher has been giving his Escanaba all-stars a thorough going over, and to put it all in a nutshell, the city is ready to greet the Sheboygan Redskins in a manner befitting a National Professional Basketball league team.

The big game is set for Thursday night in the Escanaba Junior high school gymnasium, and the bill of fare is this: Top talent from the Upper Peninsula independent championship Delta Hardware team of last year, plus some fast newcomers will battle the Redskins first half—they'll go all out the first half—and then they'll retire while 12 Redskins—all highly paid professional players—square off for an intra-squad game.

12 Redskins Coming

"Ken Suesens is bringing 12 players here and two sets of uniforms, and they'll be all set to put on a fast exhibition the last half after they tangle with the all-stars in a first half," Frasher said. "Since the Escanabans will play only one half, they'll be at top speed for that period to make as good a showing as possible against this National Pro team."

In addition to the Hardware, Ed Hendrickson and Don Lewis of St. Joe fame and Tom St. Germain, present St. Joe coach and four-year star at Northern Michigan College of Education in Marquette, will play on the all-stars.

St. Germain played forward for three years at Marquette and guard for one year. In his senior year at guard, he was the team's second high scorer. Hendrickson played guard on the St. Joe team last year that won the U. P. parochial championship in Negaunee. Because of his height, he will be used at either forward or center on the all-star aggregation. He has surprised Frasher and the Hardware with his efficient work in practice under the basket.

"All the all-stars have agreed to the halftime plan," Frasher said. "It is really the best plan because it gives local fans a chance to see two teams of professional caliber square off against each other."

Looks Like Dog Fight

Actually, Escanaba fans will see a dog fight that last half for the starting Sheboygan Redskin five has not yet been selected, and Suesens has informed Frasher that they're all on trial and how well they perform here will go a long way toward determining just who will make the first team.

Officials for the game will be Dick Schram and Steve Baltic. Jim Rouman will be official scorer, and Cliff Beaudin, jr., will be timer. Ticket collectors will be Paul Vardigan and Jack Beck and Francis Lueneberg, Jerome DeLoria and Roy Lindstrom will serve as ushers.

In case you're not yet acquainted with the Sheboygan Redskins, here they are: Mike Todorovich, six-foot five inch forward from Notre Dame university and the University of Wyoming, the National Basketball league's outstanding rookie of last season.

Meet The Redskins

Paul Cloyd—former University of Wisconsin and Great Lakes Naval Training station star in his second year with the Redskins. A guard last year but a forward this season.

Robert Cook—A phenomenal one-handed artist who sparked the University of Wisconsin five in Big Ten competition last year.

Merlin Gilbertson—Hailing from the University of Washington and Pacific Coast professional basketball and particularly adept in ball handling and one-handed shooting.

Milton Schoon—Six-foot seven-inch pivot man from Valparaiso university being groomed to take the great Eddie Dancker's place on the Redskin lineup.

Max Morris—Former Northwestern university ace, and among the others are Les Deaton, a six-foot four-inch star; Bob Brannum, the rugged Michigan State and Kentucky ace who scales six feet six inches; Dan Wagner of the University of Texas; Jack Watkins of the University of Oklahoma and Suesens, himself, the league's outstanding exponent of team play.

Georgia Tech finished with 929 points and one first place vote. The Yellow Jackets rolled over Florida, 42-7. Penn. 20-14 conquerors of Navy, drew 505 points. Missouri's Tigers moved up from ninth place to eighth, replacing Penn State. Missouri, which turned

Irish Remain As Runnerup; Tarheels 3rd

Penn State Drops Out Of Top Ten

By RALPH RODEN

New York, Oct. 26 (P)—Michigan's rampaging Wolverines retained their rating as the top college football team in the country today in the weekly Associated Press poll of the nation's sports writers.

The powerhouse from Ann Arbor drew 117 of the 206 first place votes and piled up 1,885 points to beat out runnerup Notre Dame by 275 points. The Irish, second also a week ago, gained 19 first place votes and polled 1,615 points.

Michigan, unbeaten and untied in five outings, downed Minnesota, 27-14 last Saturday while the Irish surged to a 27-12 victory over Iowa for their fifth straight conquest of a perfect season.

North Carolina's Tar Heels held on to third place, drawing 46 first place ballots and 1,568 points. The Irish, as they did a week ago, scored heavily in second place votes to beat out North Carolina's unbeaten squad for runnerup honors. Points are figured on the basis of 10 for a first place, nine for second and so on down the line to one for tenth place.

California, Army, Georgia Tech and Pennsylvania, also among the nation's unbeaten teams, retained fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh places, respectively.

The Golden Bears, who brushed past Washington, 21-0, gained 13 first place votes and piled up 1,239 points. Army, which turned back previously unbeaten Cornell, 27-6, drew four first place ballots and wound up with 1,214 points.

Georgia Tech finished with 929 points and one first place vote. The Yellow Jackets rolled over Florida, 42-7. Penn. 20-14 conquerors of Navy, drew 505 points. Missouri's Tigers moved up from ninth place to eighth, replacing Penn State. Missouri, which turned

Detroit Druggist And Ex-Nurse Face Dope Sale Charges

Detroit, Oct. 26 (AP)—An elderly pharmacist and an ex-nurse were free on bond today as federal agents sought to trace $56,000 worth of missing dope.

Joseph Bell, supervisor of the federal narcotics bureau, said 10,000 drug tablets were missing from a pharmacy in a Woodward avenue hotel (Sheraton).

Harold L. Ford, 70, pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Arthur F. Lederle Monday to a charge of falsifying narcotics records at the pharmacy, where he worked.

Mrs. Virginia Neely Davis, 43, a resident of the hotel and former nurse, stood mute to a four-count indictment charging forgery and theft.

Both were released under bonds of $500 each.

Bell claimed that Mrs. Davis forged prescriptions for about $11,000 worth of narcotics over an 18 month period, and that Ford accepted them, knowing they were forged.

Education Study Report Praises Escanaba Setup

programs are available in Allegan, Ionia, Clinton, Shiawassee, LaPeer, St. Clair, Barry, Eaton, Livingston, Van Buren, St. Joseph, Hillsdale and Lenawee counties.

"In the entire northern peninsula only Gogebic, Menominee, Delta, and Chippewa counties have a school district with the 2,000 enrollment necessary to justify a program for handicapped children, and only Escanaba has a complete program.

"Rural school buildings are inadequate, unhealthful, poorly maintained and sometimes dangerous. The fact that over 1,100 primary school districts have closed their schools and are sending their children to town schools may be some indication of public dissatisfaction x x x."

"The typical rural village high school is too small to offer a broad program. Quite often the small village high school neglects the elementary school program in concentrating on the operation of an inadequate high school.

"The cause of these conditions is primarily bad structural organization. The present school system which has not been basically changed in 100 years x x x is totally inadequate to meet today's needs."

Democratic Party Treasury In Red

Washington, Oct. 26 (AP)—Democrats showed a deficit in their party treasury today, although their top organizations have spent $639,070 less than the Republicans in the struggle for the presidency and control of Congress.

A compilation of reports filed with Congress by the two national party committees and parallel groups seeking to elect senators and house members showed GOP spending at $2,177,277; that of the Democrats at $1,538,207.

The Democratic national committee said it has gone $10,755 in the red with its bank balance—just a week before election—down to $8,485.

In addition to the money in the bank, the committee listed $95,000 due from loans to state and local committees but $114,240 in unpaid obligations.

Barkley Declares GOP Is Ashamed Of Ex-Presidents

Philadelphia, Oct. 26 (AP)—Sen. Alben W. Barkley, Democratic vice presidential candidate, says the Republican party is "ashamed" of some of its ex-presidents, and wants "the people to forget them."

Speaking without a prepared text at the 14th annual $100-a-plate dinner last night, the Kentuckian offered $1,000 to anyone "who can show me any Republican who has praised the Harding, Coolidge or Hoover administrations in this campaign."

Barkley, who spoke over a local radio network (WFIL-ABC), predicted that "when Jan. 3 comes, we will have a Democratic Senate and House and on Jan. 30 Harry S. Truman will be re-inaugurated president—and the new vice president won't hurt anything."

School Playground Work Soon Finished

Surfacing of school playgrounds in Escanaba with asphalt is nearing completion, it was reported today by John Lemmer, superintendent of schools.

Cyclone fences have been erected and hardsurfacing has been completed at the Barr, Franklin and Jefferson schools. Work on the project at the Washington school is now under way.

Work on the school playgrounds was begun in August and was made possible through gifts from Mrs. Catherine Bonifas.

Woman Thrown Off Train In Kentucky; Assailants Hunted

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 26 (AP)—Sheriff Lanice Futrell reported that a woman, identified as Mrs. Ruth Cooney, Chicago, was thrown from a train near here early today.

Futrell said the Louisville and Nashville railroad had ordered all its agents through Tennessee to watch for the train and stop it at the first possible point. Futrell said it was expected the train would be boarded by police at Chattanooga to look for assailants of Mrs. Cooney.

The sheriff said the woman is almost incoherent due to injuries and shock, but officers were able to learn from her that her three-year-old son, her purse containing $14 or $15 and some baggage were on the train. Futrell said she was covered with cuts and bruises from head to foot, is believed to have suffered rib fractures and appears to be drugged.

The officer reported Mrs. Cooney was found at a roadside 10 miles north of Hopkinsville where she said she had crawled from the railroad embankment.

gate and October president of the council, spoke up sharply to close the debate until Thursday at 10:30 a. m. (4:30 a. m., EST) after Mahmoud Bey Fawzi of Egypt pressed for immediate council action.

The council was called into the emergency session to hear an Egyptian charge that Israel is violating a cease fire order on the Negev front in southern Palestine. Fawzi said Egypt had accepted the security council's week-old cease fire order in the Negev, but that fighting there was continuing.

"What is the security council going to do about this continued fighting?" He demanded impatiently.

Leaking Navy Craft Guided to Safety In Delaware Waters

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 26 (AP)—A 150-foot landing vessel, with 63 men aboard, fought slowly toward the Delaware coast through high seas today under the care of the cruiser Macon.

The crew manned the pumps of the LCIL-1093 to keep down the flow of water into her engine room from a leak around her steering post.

Inching northward at a speed of 2.5 knots, the craft's position at 8 a. m., EST was 89 miles east of Cape May, N. J. She had moved only 18 miles since 8 o'clock last night as 45-knot winds smashed 30-foot waves against her.

The cruiser Macon, dispatched to her assistance from Norfolk yesterday morning, reached her late last night and took over the charge from the destroyer Forrest Royal. The fleet tug Mosopolea was trailing 10 miles behind.

Weight Tax Boost May Delay Plates

Lansing, Oct. 26 (AP)—Governor Sigler sought today to determine whether the secretary of state has legal authority to delay the sale of 1949 auto license plates, as suggested by the Michigan Good Roads Federation.

The federation proposed the delay until the legislature meets in January in the hope that it will vote an increase in the weight (license) tax.

A delegation of federation officials has urged that any increase in road taxes include a higher gas tax, higher weight tax, more local tax support and administrative changes.

The officials asserted that since most car license plates are bought in February a delay would work little hardship.

On-Job Training Reports Required For Subsistence

World War II veterans taking on-job training under the G. I. Bill and their employers must cooperate in keeping monthly training reports for submission to Veterans Administration or the veterans will lose subsistence allowances, Escanaba VA officials warned today.

VA said on-job training reports for the month of October are due November 1. Subsistence payments will be suspended in all cases where these reports are not received by November 10, VA said.

Since direct VA supervision of veterans training under the G. I. Bill ceased early this year, there has been an increasing number of delinquent reports each month.

In order to prevent payment of subsistence allowances to which veterans may not be entitled, it is necessary for VA to receive the monthly training reports promptly. VA said the reports must be maintained by the veteran-trainees and submitted by their employers. VA said on-job trainees under the G. I. Bill total approximately 20,000 in Ohio, 10,000 in Michigan and 7,000 in Kentucky.

VA said subsistence payments will be suspended for every trainee for whom a report is not received by the 10th of each month. If the report is received within 60 days after it is due, subsistence payments will be made retroactive to cover the period of suspension. Trainees for whom reports are not received in 60 days will be removed from VA rolls.
